PROCEEDINGS OF THE GENERAL MEETING ON

October 31st, 1890.

The forty-first General Meeting of the Society was held at the Westminster Town Hall, on October 31st, 1890.

MR. PEARSALL SMITH IN THE CHAIR.

Mr. T. Barkworth read a paper on "Some Recent Experiments in Planchette Writing," which it is proposed to publish in a future number of the Proceedings.

The paper by Professor William James, of Harvard, on "Observations of Certain Phenomena of Trance," made with Mrs. Piper, which is printed above, was read by his brother, Mr. Henry James.